This writ petition has been filed challenging Ext. P3 by which the request made by the petitioner for paying the motor vehicles tax in instalments has been rejected by the Government. Although, the order does not suffer from any illegalities, still taking into account the circumstances explained by the petitioner, I direct that the petitioner would be permitted to pay off the tax arrears, additional tax and penalty in three equal monthly installments, the first of which will be payable on the 1st of November, 2007, the second and 3rd on the 1st of December, 2007 and 1st January, 2008. I clarify that this facility of installment payment will not ensure to any other benefit for the petitioner.

This writ petition is disposed of as above.

JUDGE
